Re: Comments on the Proposed Plan for the Portland Harbor Superfund Site

To Whom It May Concern:

In connection with the "Proposed Plan for the Portland Harbor Superfund Site," issued by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, Region 10 on June 8, 2016 (the "Proposed Plan"), Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc. and Toyota Logistics Services, Inc. (collectively, "Toyota") provide notice that they join any and all public comments submitted in opposition to the Proposed Plan. Specifically, Toyota supports the Portland Harbor Sustainability Project analysis and report submitted by ExxonMobil and the findings therein and well as the Comments on Behalf of the PCI Group on the Proposed Plan for the Portland Harbor Superfund Site and the findings therein. Toyota reserves the right to make future legal and technical arguments based on such public comments.

Please include this letter in the administrative record for the Proposed Plan. By submitting this letter, Toyota does not admit any liability, issue of law or fact, or waive any rights or defenses.

Sincerely,

Gary P. Gengel
